The next meeting will be held on the 17th of June and the host will be Steve DeShaw. The wine to be tasted will be Mosel. About August 5 we'll have a crawdad feed at the Blodgett's and some fine Pinot Chardonnay will accompany the food. Since we'll be gorging ourselves no "tasting" will occur - just guzzeling!

See you then,

^{23^d} The next meeting will be held at the Blodgett's on July ~~29~~. It will be the "Crawdad Feed" and wives are definitely invited. If everyone will bring a bottle of his choice of Chablis or Chardonnay to be shared it will go well. For those that don't like crawdads we'll have some other food.

See you then,

See you at 7:00 PM, Tuesday the 23^d

Since our last regular tasting, Bob Gillette of Allen Int. invited us to his home in Lake Oswego. We enjoyed some excellent Mosel wines including two "eisweins."

The next meeting will be held on January ____ (Wayne Strohecker will advise) at Strohecker's.

On Sunday February 23 we are planning a Sunday brunch with wives where we will enjoy Steve DeShaw's culinary talents accompanied by Asti Spumante. On April 7, we - hopefully - will have a fresh spring salmon bake where everyone can bring his own choice wine to share.

A committee will report at our January meeting on proposed by-laws. Warren Deal is heading up this committee.

Our appreciation for two wine enthusiasts, Ernie Millen and Harley Piper who filled in for two regulars who couldn't attend.

Thanks to Jim Welch for another fine tasting - good wines, well organized and properly presented.....but a 15 for Ste. Michelle, come on!

See you in January at Strohecker's.

Good tasting,
